

HIT AND MISS TURF CHAT.

THIS WILL PROBABLY BE A LIVELY WEEK AT TRENTON AND ALBANY.

Pleas of Pool Room Bouts at Albany—American Horsemen Not Particularly Frightened Because Col. North is Sending Thoroughbreds to This Country—Key del Rey Sound Again—That About Important Turf Personages—Today's Entries for Guttenberg and Gloucester.

This will be a big week in the racing world, as legislation will undoubtedly be actively at work in two States, and there is a prospect that the turf will see the end of many of its troubles within a very short period. The pool-room men will spend untold hours at Albany to prevent the passage of any law compelling them to close their rooms, and there are men in the business who do not hesitate to say that the new bill will come to an untimely end.

The fact that Col. North has sent a number of thoroughbreds over to compete at the great meetings to be held in the vicinity of New York and at Chicago next season is not giving the owners of American race horses any great amount of worry, as none of the horses sent from England of late years have cut a very wide dash. Plunger Walton, Richmond was probably the last of the lot, and, seconded in the race, was a good one, but the nearest that he came to landing any event with big money behind it. The nitratin king's representatives will have to become needle-mitred, and it would not be surprising if the venture involved a flat failure, save inasmuch as it shows that the Colonel is actuated by a sportmanlike spirit, and is worthy of praise for inaugurating a practice which it is hoped will become general. Along with Col. North's horses comes an English trainer and our own Col. Thomas Porteher Oulds as manager. It was supposed some time ago that Matt Allen, who was so successful with the Elkhorn Stable, would have the North Americans were not successful, and, in all probability, Allen will train a few for himself and take half a dozen or more outsiders that show winning form. In all probability he will be able to find a good one, and glad to hear that the big bay horse is as sound as ever and will surely stand a reduced admission even for standing room.

To a Syc representative Corbett talked fighting this way: "During the week just passed I have received word from good authority that the English piglist, Charley Mitchell, will start for this country as soon as my present engagement—a sixty days' term in Pentonville Prison—is completed. His object in coming is to fight me to finish. He will have no chance of booking me up, as there is no room in the theatre, but I am sure he is glad to hear that the big bay horse is as sound as ever and will surely stand a reduced admission even for standing room."

CORBETT'S GREETING AT ST. LOUIS.

The Champion Will Meet Jackson After His Wife Mitchell.

St. Louis, Jan. 29.—Jim Corbett arrived here this morning, and was honored at the Southern Hotel. At Long's Theatre he received several calls, and a piglist has never before had so many calls on him.

A formidable array of famous professionals appeared for the benefit of the audience. The English, the Americans, the Melodramatic, Mork and Martin King, were among them. Matt Allen was in 4 minutes 47.2 seconds.
